PARTNERSHIP INFORMATIVE INCOME TAX RETURN - COMPOSITE (FORM 480.10(SC))

GENERAL INSTRUCTIONS

Rev. 10.21

WHO CAN FILE THIS RETURN?

The partners of a partnership engaged in a trade or business in Puerto Rico are considered engaged in such trade or business in Puerto Rico with respect to their distributable share, according to the provisions of Section 1071.01 of the Puerto Rico Internal Revenue Code of 2011, as amended ("Code"). Therefore, if a partnership is engaged in a trade or business in Puerto Rico ("Resident Partnership" or "Partnership"), its partners will earn income related to the trade or business in Puerto Rico with respect to their distributable share in the income, gain, loss, deductions or credits of the Resident Partnership.

Pursuant to the provisions of Administrative Determination No. 12-07 of March 14, 2012, nonresident partners of a Resident Partnership may choose to file a Partnership Informative Income Tax Return - Composite.

For these cases, the Department of the Treasury provides the Resident Partnership the alternative to file this Partnership Informative Income Tax Return – Composite (Form 480.10(SC)) ("Composite Return") on behalf of its nonresident partners or members that are partnerships or limited liability companies ("LLC") treated as partnerships under the Code ("Nonresident Intermediate Entities" or "Nonresident Partner").

This return must be filed by the Resident Partnership on behalf of its Nonresident Partners that choose to be included in the Composite Return and that duly complete Schedule I (SC), following the instructions that are included below. Therefore, the filing of this Composite Return is an election of each Nonresident Partner of the Resident Partnership.

For purposes of this return, the terms partnership and partner include a limited liability company and any of its members if they are subject to the provisions of Chapter 7 of Subtitle A of the Code.

EXCEPTION: Section 1092.06(b) of the Code provides that, subject to those conditions, limitations and exceptions established by the Secretary, Nonresident Partners that are treated as engaged in trade or business in Puerto Rico only because of Section 1071.01 of the Code, can be exempted from the obligation to file an income tax return if the income tax withheld by the Resident Partnership and submitted to the Department of the Treasury on behalf of this partner satisfies its tax responsibility in Puerto Rico.

The Nonresident Intermediate Entities that choose NOT to be included in the Composite Return (or who cannot file the same because of having earned other income from sources within Puerto Rico) will have the obligation to file an income tax return in Puerto Rico according to the provisions of the Code.

WHEN AND WHERE TO FILE?

This composite return must be filed no later than the 15th day of the third month following the close of the taxable year of the partnership that files, at the request of its Nonresident Partners who constitute intermediate pass-through entities and who choose to fulfill their tax responsibility by filing this Composite Return. However, as provided by Administrative Determination No. 21-03 (DA 21-03), the return corresponding to calendar year 2020 must be filed no later than April 15, 2021.

The return must be filed at the Department of the Treasury, Returns Processing Bureau, located at 10 Paseo Cavadonga, Intendente Ramírez Building in Old San Juan, or sent by mail to the following address:

DEPARTMENT OF THE TREASURY
PO BOX 9022501
SAN JUAN PR 00902-2501

It may also be filed at any Internal Revenue Collections Office.

AUTOMATIC EXTENSION OF TIME TO FILE THE RETURN

A six (6) months automatic extension of time to file the return will be granted, if it is requested not later than the due date to file the return. The request shall be electronically filed using Form AS 2644 through the Resident Partnership's account in the Internal Revenue Integrated System (SURI, for its Spanish acronym), according to the following steps:

1. Login to your SURI account.
2. In the Accounts menu, select the Pass-Through Entity link.
3. Choose the filing period for which you want to file the Automatic Extension of Time.
4. In the I Want To section, select the Income Tax Return Extension link.
5. In the Return Type option, select Composite Partnership Informative (Form 480.10(SC)), in the Type of Taxpayer box, choose Other Taxpayers (Line 17, Part III) and in the Other Taxpayers question (#17), select the Form 480.10(SC) (Line 17b, Part III) option.
6. Follow the system's instructions. Once you have submitted the Automatic Extension of Time, the system will issue a confirmation message and you will have the choice to select "Printable View" to get a copy of the submitted Request for Extension of Time to File the Income Tax Return. We recommend you keep a copy of said document in your records.

For additional information regarding the filing process of the Automatic Extension of Time Request for taxable year 2020, please refer to Internal Revenue Circular Letter No. 21-09 of March 17, 2021.

This extension must be in addition to the one that may be requested by the Resident Partnership to file the Informative Income Tax Return Pass-Through Entity (Form 480.20(EC)).

COLUMN OF CENTS

When filling out the return, do not use the column for cents. That way we can expedite its processing.

It is important to remind you that it is not about rounding off, but eliminating the cents. See the following example:

$480.90 = $480
$475.25 = $475

PART III - CREDITS

On March 7, 2017, the Financial Advisory Authority and Fiscal Agency of Puerto Rico (“AAFAF”, for its Spanish acronym) issued Administrative Order No. OA-2017-01 (“OA-2017-01”) by which it created the Disbursements and Tax Concessions Authorization Committee (“CADCC”, for its Spanish acronym) to which it granted certain authorizations regarding the evaluation and granting of tax credits and delegated the responsibility of establishing limitations regarding the use and availability of the tax credits granted. Also, OA-2017-01 ordered the Secretary of Treasury (“Secretary”) to carry out an inventory of the tax credits granted and to require the holders of tax credits to report the amount granted of said credits, in the manner that the Secretary establishes for said purposes. The administrative order also establishes that, any credit holder that does not show evidence issued by the Secretary of compliance with the information requirement, will not be able to claim said tax credits.

For such purposes, on April 20, 2017, the Department of the Treasury issued the Internal Revenue Informative Bulletin No. 17-08 to notify that the requirement to carry out the inventory of tax credits would be met by electronically filing Form 480.71.1 (Informative Return for Tax Credits Holders) and established that the requirement imposed by AAFAF to submit evidence of compliance with the information requirement in order to claim the tax credits, would be met by electronically filing Form 480.71.1. Therefore, in order to claim a tax credit that has been granted and available as of April 19, 2017, it must be included in Form 480.71.1 that the credit holder submitted to the Department.

For its part, on July 2, 2018, AAFAF, through Administrative Order No. OA-2018-10 (“OA-2018-10”), repealed the OA-2017-01 and left the CADCC without effect prospectively. For such purposes, Section 1051.15(b)(1) of the Code provides that for taxable years commenced after December 31, 2017, the tax credits will not be subject to the limitations set forth in the resolutions issued by the CADCC during its existence, therefore, they will be subject only to the rules of use established in the special law under which the tax credit is granted and the applicable provisions of the Code. However, credits covered under Section 1051.12(a)(4), (5) and (7) of the Code will be subject to the use limitation provided in Section 1051.13 of the Code.
