QUESTIONNAIRE

REFUNDLine 1 – Amount Overpaid

An overpayment of tax or refund results when the total tax withheld and paid, including any amount paid with the automatic extension (if any), exceeds the tax determined. This amount comes from Part II, line 15, page 2 of the return and results when line 14D is more than line 13.

Any overpayment of income tax will be applied against any enforceable tax liability imposed by the Code.

In the absence of a liability from previous years, you may elect to contribute all or part of the overpayment of tax to the San Juan Bay Estuary Special Fund or the University of Puerto Rico Special Fund. If you do so, enter the amount you wish to contribute to any of these Funds on lines 1A and 1B, respectively. Enter any balance to be refunded on line 1C.

PAYMENTLine 2 – Amount of Tax Due

If the tax determined exceeds the total tax withheld, paid and amount paid with the automatic extension (if any), there is a total tax due. This amount comes from Part II, line 15, page 2 of the return and results when line 14D is less than line 13.

Line 3 - Amount paid

You may pay your tax by sending the payment with the return. If a payment is sent with the return, you must enter the amount on line 3(a).

Payments can only be made electronically through SURI. For these purposes, it is important that, when making the payment in SURI, make sure to: (i) select the Corporate Income Tax account; (ii) in the Payment Type, select Return Payment; (iii) in the Period selects the close of the taxable year for which you are interested in the payment to be applied, and (iv) upon completion of the payment transaction, keep in your files the summary information and confirmation number provided by the system.

INTERESTS, SURCHARGES AND PENALTIESInterests

The Code provides for the assessment of interests at a 10% annual rate over any tax balance that is not paid by its due date.

Surcharges

When the payment of interests is applicable, a surcharge of 5% of the amount due will be assessed, if the delay in payment exceeds 30 days, but not over 60 days; or 10% of the amount due, if the delay exceeds 60 days.

Penalties

The Code imposes a progressive penalty from 5% to 25% of the total tax due for late filing unless you can show reasonable cause for the delay.

Also, any person required under the Code to file a return, declaration, certification or report, who voluntarily fails to file such return, declaration, certification or report within the term or terms required by the Code or regulations, in addition to other penalties, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor.

In those cases in which any person voluntarily fails to file the above mentioned return, declaration, certification or report (within the terms required by the Code or regulations) with the intention to avoid or defeat any tax imposed by the Code, in addition to other penalties, shall be guilty of a third degree felony.

Line 4 - Balance of Tax Due

This is the amount of tax that you owe. The same must be paid no later than April 15, or if you file on a fiscal year basis, no later than the fifteenth day of the fourth month following the close of the taxable year.

Notwithstanding, as established in AD 21-04, for taxable year 2020, any estate or trust that files its return based on a calendar year or that has the obligation to file the return no later than April 15, 2021 based on a short year, will have until Monday, May 17, 2021 to pay the balance of tax due with the return.

SIGNATURE OF THE RETURN

PAYMENT FOR THE PREPARATION OF THE RETURN

If you paid for the preparation of the tax return, make sure that the specialist signs the return and include his/her registration number. The Code provides civil and criminal sanctions to those specialists who fail to submit this information or who do not meet other statutory requirements imposed by the Code.

The specialist must declare under penalty of perjury that he/she examined the return, and to the best of his/her knowledge and belief the return is correct and complete.

PART II - TAX COMPUTATION, CREDITS AND TAX WITHHELD OR PAID

Line 1 - Tax

Once the net taxable income is determined, compute the tax and fill in the corresponding oval to indicate the method used to determine the same:

Oval 1 - Tax according to table

Oval 2 - Tax at preferential rates (Schedule A2 Individual)

Oval 3 - Tax for nonresident aliens

TAX COMPUTATION TABLE

If the net taxable income (line 8, Part I of the return) is:	The tax shall be:
Not over $9,000	0%
Over $9,000, but not over $25,000	7% of the excess over $9,000
Over $25,000, but not over $41,500	$1,120 plus 14% of the excess over $25,000
Over $41,500, but not over $61,500	$3,430 plus 25% of the excess over $41,500
In excess of $61,500	$8,430 plus 33% of the excess over $61,500

Enter the total tax determined on this line and fill in the "Tax Table" Oval.

Preferential rates

If the estate or trust derived income subject to preferential rates such as interest, dividends or long-term capital gains, among others, you must complete Schedule A2 Individual. On this Schedule you shall determine the tax on income that is subject to a preferential rate and the regular tax on any other income, and you can compare this amount with the regular tax on total income so you can choose the most beneficial alternative.

Also, if your income subject to preferential rates is $20,000 or more, it is required that you allocate the deduction for charitable contributions according to the different types of income.

Complete Schedule A2 Individual and transfer the amount of tax from line 17 of this Schedule to Part II, line 1 of the return and fill in the "Preferential rates" Oval. Submit Schedule A2 Individual with your return.

Nonresident alien

If the estate or trust is a nonresident alien not engaged in trade or business in Puerto Rico, income from sources within Puerto Rico will be taxed at a fixed rate of 29% except in the case of dividends that will be taxed at 15%, and the income attributable to the distributable share of a stockholder in a corporation of individuals which will be taxed at 33%. Enter the tax determined in Part II, line 1 of the return and fill in the "Nonresident alien" Oval on this line.

If you are engaged in trade or business in Puerto Rico, all income from sources within Puerto Rico, as well as those related to the operation of the trade or business in Puerto Rico, will be taxed at normal tax rates.

Line 2 - Gradual Adjustment Amount

If the net taxable income is more than $500,000, you must complete Schedule P Individual. Determine the gradual adjustment amount on said Schedule P Individual. (See instructions of Schedule P Individual on the instructions for the Individual Income Tax Return). Enter the amount determined on Schedule P Individual, line 7. Submit this Schedule with the return.

Line 4 - Regular Tax before the Credit

Section 1021.01 (c) of the Code provides that the tax determined will be 95% of the sum of the regular tax and the gradual adjustment amount. However, when the taxpayer's gross income does not exceed $100,000, the tax determined shall be 92% of the sum of the regular tax and the gradual adjustment amount. Therefore, the amount to be entered on this line will depend on the method used to determine the tax on line 1 and the amount of the taxpayer's gross income as indicated below:

- If you checked Oval 1 ("Tax Table"):
 - ✓ If the sum of lines 1A, 1B, 1C, 1F, 1G, 1I, 1J, 1K, 1M, 1N, 1O, 1P and the total line (Total $ _____) included in lines 1D, 1E, 1H, 1L, and 1Q to 1U, of Part I of the return, plus the exempt income from line 43 less lines 2D, 31B to 31F, and 37 to 42, first Column of Part II of Schedule IE Individual, does not exceed $100,000 - Multiply line 3 by .92.
 - ✓ If the result of the previous sum is more than $100,000 - Multiply line 3 by .95.
- If you checked Oval 2 (Preferential rates - Schedule A2 Individual) - Enter the amount from line 1, Part II of the return. Do not multiply this amount by any of the percentages (92% or 95%) included on this line. (See instructions for line 17 of Schedule A2 Individual).
