REVOCABLE TRUST OR GRANTOR TRUST INFORMATIVE INCOME TAX RETURN

FORM 480.80(F)

GENERAL INSTRUCTIONS

WHO MUST FILE THIS RETURN?

Every revocable trust or grantor trust subject to the provisions of Sections 1083.05 and 1083.06 respectively, of the Puerto Rico Internal Revenue Code of 2011, as amended (Code), must file a return to inform the income received during the corresponding taxable year.

For purposes of this return, the term "grantor trust" includes a trust created under the Puerto Rico laws that, for purposes of the Federal Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (IRC), is treated as a grantor trust at the federal level.

WHEN AND WHERE THE RETURN MUST BE FILED?

This return must be filed not later than the 15th day of the third month following the closing of the trust's taxable year. For example, a revocable trust or a grantor trust which accounting year is a calendar year (ending on December 31, 2018) must file the return not later than March 15, 2019.

The return must be filed in the Department of the Treasury, Returns Processing Bureau, located at 10 Paseo Covadonga, Intendente Ramírez Building in Old San Juan, or mailed to the following address:

DEPARTMENT OF THE TREASURY
PO BOX 9022501
SAN JUAN PR 00902-2501

It may also be hand-delivered at the Internal Revenue Collections Office of your municipality.

AUTOMATIC EXTENSION OF TIME TO FILE THE RETURN

A six (6) month automatic extension of time to file the return will be granted if it is requested not later than the due date to file the return. This will be done using Form AS 2644.

An extension of time to file the return does not extend the time for the payment of the tax corresponding to the share of the trustee in the income of the trust.

COLUMN OF CENTS

While completing the return, the column of cents will not be used. That way we can expedite its processing. It is important to remind you that it is not about rounding off, but eliminating the cents. See the following example:

$$480.90 = \480

INFORMATIVE RETURN

Every revocable trust or grantor trust must complete to each grantor a Revocable Trust or Grantor Trust Informative Return (Form 480.60 F) and report the distributable share of every grantor on the income and expenses, gains or losses and credits generated by the trust during the taxable year. Copy of these informative returns must be included with the filing of Form 480.80(F).

INSTRUCTIONS TO COMPLETE THE RETURN

HEADING OF THE RETURN

If the taxable year of the trust is a calendar year, there is no need to enter the date on which the taxable year begins and ends, only the corresponding year. Otherwise, if it is a fiscal year, you must enter the date on which the taxable year begins and ends in the space provided in the trust return.

Enter in the corresponding space the name, address and employer identification number of the trust. Your employer identification number is required to process the return.

Fill in the corresponding oval to indicate if you are filing the first or the last return. Enter in the corresponding box the date and place the trust was created. Complete the information requested and include the corresponding documents.

If the trust is engaged in a trade or business, enter in the corresponding box the merchant's registration number. Also, indicate if you derived income subject to any tax incentive act and enter the number of the Act that grants you the benefit.

Enter in the corresponding box the amount of Forms 480.60 F (Informative Return - Revocable Trust or Grantor Trust) included with the return. A copy of Forms 480.60 F provided to each one of the trustees must be included with this return.

CHANGE OF ADDRESS

If you notify a change of address at the moment of filing the return, fill in the applicable oval and write the new address clearly and legibly in the space provided for this purpose in the return's heading. On the other hand, if you change your address at any other moment during the year, you must inform it using Form SC 2898 (Change of Address). This form is available in our website: www.hacienda.pr.gov.

PART I – QUESTIONNAIRE

Line 1- Type of trust

Fill in the corresponding oval to indicate if it is a revocable trust or a grantor trust.

Line 2- Indicate the accounting method used by the trust

Fill in the corresponding oval to indicate the accounting method used by the trust.

Line 3- Indicate the name and address of the trustee

Enter the name and address of the trustee or trustees.

PART II – ATTRIBUTABLE ITEMS PER CATEGORY

Enter the amount derived for each activity and the tax withheld, if any.

Line 1 - Income (or losses)

Enter on lines 1A through 1V the total of each type of income or deductible losses, and provide detailed information for each one of them on the corresponding Schedules.

Line 1A - Total distributions from qualified retirement plans

Enter the lump-sum distributions received by the trust during the year, as reported on line 25, Part IV of Schedule D Individual.

Line 1B - Gain (or loss) on the sale or exchange of short-term capital assets

Enter the net gain or loss derived from the sale or exchange of capital assets held by the trust for one year or less, as determined on line 7, Part I of Schedule D Individual.

Line 1C - Gain (or loss) on the sale or exchange of long-term capital assets

Enter in line 1C the net gain or loss derived from the sale or exchange of capital assets held by the trust for more than one year, as determined on line 17, Part II of Schedule D Individual.

Line 1D - Gain (or loss) on the sale or exchange of long-term capital assets realized under special legislation

Enter the net gain or loss derived from the sale or exchange of long term capital assets held by the trust and realized under special legislation, as determined on lines 18 through 20, Part III of Schedule D Individual.

Line 1E - Interests on deposits from financial institutions

Enter the interest income derived from investments or deposits in cooperatives, savings associations authorized by the Federal Government or by the Government of Puerto Rico, commercial and mutual banks or in banking institutions established in Puerto Rico, as well as the 10% or 17% amount withheld, if the election was made. Determine the total interest received from financial institutions engaged in trade or business in Puerto Rico adding the total of line 1 of Columns B, C, D and E, Part I of Schedule FF Individual and subtracting only the total of expenses incurred to generate such income as reported in line 2 of Columns B, C, D and E, Part I of Schedule FF Individual.

Line 1F – Other interests subject to 10% withholding

Enter on this line the interest income derived from bonds, notes and other obligations that are deemed eligible interest under Section 1023.05(b) of the Code, as well as the amount withheld of 10%, if the election was made. Determine the total interest received adding the total of line 1, Column A of Schedule FF Individual and subtracting the total expenses incurred to generate such income as reported on line 2, Column A, Part I of Schedule FF Individual.

Line 1G - Other interests subject to withholding of ____%

Enter on this line the income from taxable interest received or credited that were subject to a fixed special tax rate not itemized previously, as reported on line 4 of Column F, Part I of Schedule FF Individual, along with the corresponding tax withheld. Specify the applicable corresponding rate in the space provided for it.

Line 1H - Other interests not subject to withholding

Enter the total taxable interest received or credited from deposits, certificates of deposit, current accounts held in any commercial bank or cooperatives and associations held in any commercial bank or financial institution located outside of Puerto Rico, as reported on line 4 of Column G, Part I of Schedule FF Individual.

Line 1I - Eligible dividend distributions from corporations subject to 15% withholding

The grantors or settlors may claim separately in their returns the dividends received by the trust from eligible dividend distributions, as defined in Section 1023.06 of the Code, according to the share in the trust, along with the portion of the tax withheld.

Enter on this line the total eligible dividends distribution received by the trust that were subject to the 15% tax rate according to provisions of Section 1023.06 of the Code, as reported on line 3, Column A, Part II of Schedule FF Individual, along with the 15% of tax withheld.

Line 1J – Dividends distributions subject to withholding of ___%

Enter on this line the total dividends distribution, made under the provisions of special legislation that provides a preferential rate different to 15%, received by the trust, as reported on line 3, Columns B and C, Part II of Schedule FF Individual, along with the corresponding tax withheld.

Line 1K - Other dividends not subject to withholding

Enter the total net dividends received from any foreign corporation not engaged in trade or business in Puerto Rico, or which income is substantially from sources outside of Puerto Rico, as determined on line 3, Column D, Part II of Schedule FF Individual.

Line 1L - Other income

Enter the total other income received by the trust not itemized in any part of the return. Use Part V of Schedule F Individual or Part III, Schedule FF Individual, as applicable, to inform such income (See instructions of Schedule F and Schedule FF Individual).

Lines 1M through 1P – Gain (or loss) from industry or business or from an activity for the production of income

If you received income from a trade or business or an activity for the production of income, use the applicable Schedule:

- Line 1M Schedule K Individual - to inform the industry or business income;
- Line 1N Schedule L Individual - to inform the farming income;
- Line 1O Schedule M Individual - to inform the professions and commissions income;
- Line 1P Schedule N Individual - to inform the rental income.

If such activities do not constitute your principal source of income, transfer only the gains determined on the Schedules to Part II, lines 1M through 1P, page 1 of the return. If you derived losses, enter zero on lines 1M through 1P.

In these cases that apply, you must indicate on line 1M if the income is covered under any special act that provides tax incentives and include the number of the act that grants such benefit.

Line 1Q - Dividends from Capital Investment or Tourism Fund

If you received dividends from an investment in a Capital Investment Fund or Tourism Fund, use Schedule Q1 to determine this income.

Line 1R - Net long-term capital gain (or loss) on Capital Investment Funds

If you derived a long-term capital gain (or loss) in Capital Investment Funds, use Schedule Q1 to determine such gain or loss and transfer it to this line of the return.

Line 1S - Distributable share on profits (or loss) from pass-through entities

The trust can be a partner of a partnership or a special partnership. Subject to certain limitations, a trust can be a stockholder of a corporation of individuals.

If you received a distributable share of benefits from partnerships, special partnerships and corporations of individuals (collectively, "pass-through entities"), use Schedule R Individual to determine this income and transfer it to this line of the return. (See instructions of Schedule R Individual).

Complete Schedule R1 Individual if the trust is a partner of more than three partnerships or special partnerships or stockholder of more than three corporations of individuals. As Schedule R Individual, Schedule R1 Individual is used each year to determine the adjusted basis and the net profit on the taxpayer's share in each pass-through entity, including the loss carryover from previous years.

Line 1T - Exempt income (Schedule IE Individual)

Enter the total amount of exempt income from Schedule IE Individual, line 36, First Column, Part II. You must include with the return the duly completed Schedule IE Individual.

Line 1U - Exempt income subject to alternate basic tax (Schedule IE Individual)

Enter the total amount of exempt income from Schedule IE Individual, line 36, Second Column, Part II. You must include with the return the duly completed Schedule IE Individual.

Line 1V - Adjustment for purposes of the alternate basic tax

Enter here any adjustment to the income of the trust that, at the trustee's level, is considered income subject to alternate basic tax, such as non deductible expenses for purposes of the alternate basic tax at the trustee's level.

Line 2- Deductions

Enter on lines 2A to 2E the total of each type of allowable deductions and provide detailed information on the corresponding Schedules.

Line 2A – Charitable contributions

Enter here the total amount of charitable contributions as detailed in Part VI, Page 3 of this return.

Line 2B – Medical expenses incurred and paid for the benefit of the grantor or beneficiary

Enter here the total amount of medical expenses as detailed in Part VII, Page 3 of this return.

Line 2C – Home mortgage interest on residential property located in Puerto Rico

Enter here the total amount of home mortgage interest as detailed in Part VIII, Page 3 of this return.

Line 2D – Casualty loss on real property that constitutes the grantor’s principal residence

Enter here the total amount of losses as detailed in Part IX, Page 3 of this return.

Line 2E – Loss of personal property as result of certain casualties

Enter here the total amount of losses as detailed in Part X, Page 3 of this return.

PART III - CREDITS

On March 7, 2017, the Financial Advisory Authority and Fiscal Agency of Puerto Rico ("AAFAF", for its Spanish acronym) issued Administrative Order No. OA-2017-01 ("OA-2017-01") by which it created the Disbursements and Tax Concessions Authorization Committee ("CADCC", for its Spanish acronym) to which it granted certain authorizations regarding the evaluation and granting of tax credits and delegated the responsibility of establishing limitations regarding the use and availability of the tax credits granted. Also, OA-2017-01 ordered the Secretary of Treasury ("Secretary") to carry out an inventory of the tax credits granted and to require the holders of tax credits to report the amount granted of said credits, in the manner that the Secretary establishes for said purposes. The administrative order also establishes that, any credit holder that does not show evidence issued by the Secretary of compliance with the information requirement, will not be able to claim said tax credits.

For such purposes, on April 20, 2017, the Department of the Treasury issued the Internal Revenue Informative Bulletin No. 17-08 to notify that the requirement to carry out the inventory of tax credits would be met by electronically filing Form 480.71.1 (Informative Return for Tax Credits Holders) and established that the requirement imposed by AAFAF to submit evidence of compliance with the information requirement in order to claim the tax credits, would be met by electronically filing Form 480.71.1. Therefore, in order to claim a tax credit that has been granted and available as of April 19, 2017, it must be included in Form 480.71.1 that the credit holder submitted to the Department.

For its part, on July 2, 2018, AAFAF, through Administrative Order No. OA-2018-10 ("OA-2018-10"), repealed the OA-2017-01 and left the CADCC without effect prospectively. For such purposes, Section 1051.15(b)(1) of the Code provides that for taxable years commenced after December 31, 2017, the tax credits will not be subject to the limitations set forth in the resolutions issued by the CADCC during its existence, therefore, they will be subject only to the rules of use established in the special law under which the tax credit is granted and the applicable provisions of the Code. However, credits covered under Section 1051.12(a)(4), (5) and (7) of the Code will be subject to the use limitation provided in Section 1051.13 of the Code.

However, OA-2018-10 establishes that the Secretary will continue to perform and maintain the inventory of all tax credits and maintains the requirement of the OA-2017-01 that the credit holder must show evidence issued by the Secretary of the compliance with the information requirement to be able to claim a tax credit.

Every revocable trust or grantor that reports the distributable share of a tax credit to its trustees, must accompany with its Informative Return copy of Form 480.71.1 duly filed in the Department.

If this part includes credits subject to moratorium, you must fill in the oval provided for this purpose. In these cases you must include with your return a detail that includes the description of the tax credit subject to moratorium, percentage claimed allowed by the moratorium, taxable year in which the credit was generated, total credit generated, amounts claimed in previous years, amount of credit available for the current year, amount of credit net of moratorium available for the current year and amount of credit available for subsequent years. Also, you must report the amount net of the portion that is subject to moratorium of said credit on the corresponding line.

Line 1 - Credit attributable to losses or for investment in a Capital Investment Fund, Tourism Fund or other funds or directly

To claim this credit you must complete and submit with the return the duly completed Schedule Q and Q1, as it corresponds. Refer to the instructions of Schedules Q and Q1 regarding the granting of the credits attributable to losses in investment funds.

Line 2 - Credit for construction investment in urban centers (Act 212-2002, as amended)

Enter on this line the amount of credit for construction investment in urban centers. Every person that carries out a construction or improvement project in an urban center, as provided by law, may qualify to claim a credit against the tax.

The concession of the credit is subject to the trust’s request and the approval by the Secretary of the Treasury of an administrative determination. You must submit with the return copy of the Administrative Determination issued by the Department.

Also, you shall include with the return for each year in which the credit is claimed, a schedule with a breakdown of the date in which the credit was granted, the taxable years for which the credit has been claimed, the expiration date, the total amount of the credit and the amounts claimed in previous years.

For additional details, refer to Act 212-2002, as amended, and the corresponding regulations.

However, no part of the net earnings of any organization to which you contribute may benefit any private shareholder or individual.

You may also claim a deduction for contributions paid to:

- the Government of Puerto Rico, the United States Government, or any of its states, territories or possessions, or any political subdivision thereof, or the District of Columbia, when the contributions or donations are used exclusively for public purposes;
- university level accredited educational institutions established in Puerto Rico;
- the José Jaime Pierluisi Foundation;
- the Fund for the Financing of Cultural Affairs of Puerto Rico;
- the Puerto Rico Communitarian Foundation;
- the Corporation of the Symphonic Orchestra of Puerto Rico; or
- the Fund for Services Against Remediable Catastrophic Illnesses.

The Secretary will publish a list of nonprofit entities qualified to receive the contributions.

The contributions made to a municipality that conducts an activity or event of historic or cultural value, as certified by the Institute of Puerto Rican Culture or the Cultural Center of each municipality, or that makes possible the realization of any cultural or historic work, may be claimed as donations, when the contributed amount is $50,000 or more, and is made in connection with the celebration of the centennial foundation of the municipalities. The total of said contributions is not subject to the limitations provided by the Code. If this type of contributions are included on this line, you must submit a schedule itemizing those contributions.

Enter the name, address, employer identification number and nature of the nonprofit entity to whom the contribution and amount paid was made. Transfer the total of charitable contributions to line 2A of Part II, Page 1 of the return.

PART VII – MEDICAL EXPENSES INCURRED AND PAID TO THE BENEFIT OF THE GRANTOR

Enter the total medical expenses paid by the trust to the benefit of the grantor that were not compensated by insurance or in any other form. Medical expenses are:

- 1) professional services rendered by physicians, dentists, radiologists, clinical pathologists, surgeons, nurses or hospitals, within or outside Puerto Rico;

- 2) health or accident insurance premiums;
- 3) medicines for human consumption, destined to be used in the diagnosis, cure, mitigation, treatment or prevention of illnesses, that were acquired solely and exclusively by medical prescription, if they have been prescribed by a doctor authorized to practice the medical profession in Puerto Rico and were dispatched by a pharmacist licensed in Puerto Rico; and
- 4) expenses incurred in the acquisition of any technological assistance equipment for persons with disabilities, specialized treatments or chronic illnesses.

For purposes of this deduction, the term "technological assistance equipment" means: any object, equipment or system part, purchased by the consumer, or provided by any agency or governmental dependency, that is original, modified or adapted, and that is used to maintain, increase or improve the capability of persons with disabilities. This includes but is not limited to: wheelchairs, motorized wheelchairs, motorized equipment used for mobility, adapted computers, electronic communication equipment, adapted computer programs, mechanic equipment used to read, hearing aids, among others.

You must keep for your records the invoice or receipt that indicates the cost of the equipment and a medical certificate that indicates that the equipment is necessary for the condition or illness of the patient, and copy of the canceled or substitute checks, or receipts evidencing the payments made for medical assistance.

PART VIII – HOME MORTGAGE INTEREST ON QUALIFIED RESIDENTIAL PROPERTY LOCATED IN PUERTO RICO

Enter the amount of home mortgage interest paid to acquire, refinance, improve or construct a property that constitutes a qualified residence.

Qualified residence means:

- 1) the principal residence of the taxpayer;
- 2) a second residence located in Puerto Rico and used by the taxpayer, or by any other person that has an interest in that property or by any member of his/her family, as a residence for a number of days that exceeds the larger of:
 - a. 14 days, or
 - b. 10% of the number of days during the taxable year in which the property has been rented at the prevailing rental market value.

Interest payments attributable to any portion of the mortgage debt in excess of the residence fair market value are not deductible.

A participant trust of a housing cooperative association may deduct payments representing home mortgage interest.

If you use a personal loan to acquire, construct or improve a qualified residence, which is not accepted by a mortgage institution as a mortgage guarantee or equity, you must keep for your records a copy of the property tax exemption application or of the appraised revision of the property.

Also, loan origination fees (Points) paid directly by the borrower and loan discounts (Points) paid directly by the borrower, will be admitted as home mortgage interest deduction for the year in which they were incurred, as long as the following requirements are met:

- 1) they are reported on the Informative Return – Mortgage Interest (Form 480.7A),
- 2) they are paid to acquire the principal residence,
- 3) they are paid by the taxpayer; if they are financed through the mortgage loan, they will be deductible throughout the term of the loan, and
- 4) you must keep for your records a copy of the cancelled or substitute check.

The loan origination fees and loan discounts financed through a home mortgage loan will be deductible throughout the term of the loan. The deduction that you may claim will be the apportioned amount paid during the term of the loan.

PART IX – CASUALTY LOSS ON REAL PROPERTY THAT CONSTITUTES THE GRANTOR’S PRINCIPAL RESIDENCE

Enter the losses with respect to real property used as the principal residence of the grantor, occurred during the taxable year, not compensated by insurance or in any other form. Such losses must be caused by hurricane, earthquake, storm, tropical depression, floods, fire or other casualties.

You must keep for your records a certification stating the amount of the loss and the type of damage suffered.

Also, you must keep for your records a certification from the Civil Defense or Fire Department if the loss was from fire, and any other documents, public deeds or appraisals which reflect the value of the property subject to the loss.

If after claiming the deduction, the trust receives any compensation from an insurance company or from a local or federal agency, you must include on the return the total amount received as part of the trust’s gross income.

PART X – LOSS OF PERSONAL PROPERTY AS A RESULT OF CERTAIN CASUALTIES

Enter the losses suffered by the trust, with respect to automobiles, furniture, fixtures and other household goods (excluding the value of jewelry and cash), not compensated by an insurance or in any other form, occurred during the taxable year due to earthquakes, hurricanes, storms, tropical depressions and floods. The deduction is limited to $5,000 for the year in which the loss was incurred.

In order to be entitled to this deduction, the affected area must be declared as a disaster area by the Governor of Puerto Rico, and you must have claimed at the appropriate place within the time limit to do so, the benefits from the assistance programs approved for disaster events.

You must keep for your records copy of the approved claim filed stating the damages suffered.

PART XI – CONTRIBUTIONS TO THE TRUST BY THE GRANTOR

Enter the name, address, social security number and contributions made by each grantor during the taxable year. You must also indicate the percentage share of each one of the grantors in the total assets or corpus of the trust.

PART XII – DISTRIBUTIONS TO BENEFICIARIES

Enter in this part the name, address, social security number and relationship of the beneficiaries of the trust. In Column A of this Part XII you must enter the total amount distributed or paid, during the taxable year, to each beneficiary. If income tax was withheld at source on the amount distributed, indicate such amount withheld in Column B of this Part XII.

PART XIII- DEDUCTION FOR INITIAL INVESTMENT IN A PRIVATE EQUITY FUND OR PUERTO RICO PRIVATE EQUITY FUND (ACT 185-2014, AS AMENDED)

A trust that, pursuant to Act 185-2014, as amended, is considered an accredited investor, may claim a deduction for its initial investment in a private equity fund (PEF) or in a Puerto Rico private equity fund (PEF-PR). For these purposes, the trust will be considered as an accredited investor if at the moment of the initial investment in a PEF or PEF-PR is a trust with total assets of more than five millions dollars ($5,000,000), that was not organized or created to purchase publicly traded securities and where a sophisticated person makes the purchase.

The amount allowable as deduction will be as follows:

- If the initial investment was made in a PEF, the maximum deduction amount will be 30% of the initial investment provided that such amount will not exceed 15% of the net income before the deduction; or
- If the initial investment was made in a PEF-PR, the maximum deduction amount will be 60% of the initial investment provided that such amount will not exceed 30% of the net income before the deduction.

The amount of the deduction not claimed in the first year may be carried forward for a maximum period of 10 years if the investment was made in a PEF and 15 years if the investment was made in a PEF-PR. For additional details, refer to Act 185-2014, as amended.

To claim this deduction, the trust must include with the return an official certification issued by the PEF or PEF-PR, printed with the fund’s letterhead and signed by a managing partner or principal officer, with the following information:

- Name and employer identification number of the PEF or PEF-PR;
- If the fund is PEF or PEF-PR;

- Name and employer identification number or social security number of the resident investor for which the certification is issued; and
- The amount of the capital committed as initial investment that was contributed during the taxable year by the resident investor for which the certification is issued, including any amount that has been contributed after the end of the taxable year but before the resident investor files the income tax return for such taxable year.

The trust must also include with the return a schedule including the allowable deduction for the initial investment and the amount of the attributable share to each grantor of this deduction.

The trust must also provide to the grantor, along with the Revocable Trust or Grantor Trust Informative Return (Form 480.60F), a letter that certifies the attributable share in the amount that corresponds to this deduction and evidence of the contribution, so that the grantors may claim this deduction on its income tax return.

SIGNATURE AND OATH OF THE RETURN

This Revocable Trust or Grantor Trust Informative Income Tax Return must be signed and sworn by the trustee or agent of the trust.

SIGNATURE OF THE RETURN BY THE SPECIALISTS

The Tax Return Specialist must declare under penalty of perjury that he/she examined the return, and to the best of his/her knowledge and belief the return is correct and complete.

If the return is prepared by an accounting firm duly registered as a specialist, it must include the registration number and be signed by the authorized person.

Indicate if you paid for the preparation of the return and make sure that the specialist signs the return and includes his/her specialist registration number. THE CODE PROVIDES CIVIL AND CRIMINAL SANCTIONS TO THOSE SPECIALISTS WHO FAIL TO SUBMIT THIS INFORMATION OR WHO DO NOT MEET ANY OTHER REQUIREMENTS ESTABLISHED BY THE CODE.
