FORM 482.0(C)

GENERAL INSTRUCTIONS

WHO MUST FILE THIS RETURN?

The partners of a partnership engaged in trade or business in Puerto Rico are considered engaged, in their individual character, to such trade or business in Puerto Rico according to the provisions of Section 1071.01 of the Puerto Rico Internal Revenue Code of 2011, as amended (Code). Therefore, as long as the partnership is engaged in the conduct of a trade or business in Puerto Rico, its nonresident individual partners (whether United States citizens or nonresident aliens) earn income related to the conduct of a trade or business in Puerto Rico.

According to the provisions of Administrative Determination No. 12-07 of March 14, 2012, nonresident individual partners of a partnership engaged in trade or business in Puerto Rico may choose to file this composite return.

This return must be filed by the partnership on behalf of the nonresident individual partners that choose to be included in the Composite Return and duly complete Schedule I (C), following the instructions provided below. This mechanism of a composite return is an election of each nonresident individual partner who is a partner or member of a partnership or limited liability company ("LLC") that is treated as a partnership under the Code. Therefore, from now on, these instructions refer to a partner or member of one of such entities as the "Partner" and to the entity as "Partnership".

EXCEPTION: Section 1091.07(b) of the Code provides that, subject to those conditions, limitations and exceptions established by the Secretary, nonresident individual partners that are treated as engaged in trade or business in Puerto Rico only because of Section 1071.01 of the Code, can be exempted from the obligation to file an income tax return if the income tax withheld by the Partnership and submitted to the Department of the Treasury on behalf of those partners satisfy their tax responsibility in Puerto Rico.

Nonresident individual partners who choose NOT to be included in the composite return (or who cannot file the composite return because of having earned other income from Puerto Rico sources or being a part-year resident of Puerto Rico) will have the obligation to file an income tax return in Puerto Rico in their individual character, according to the provisions of the Code.

WHEN AND WHERE TO FILE?

This Composite Return must be filed not later than the 15th day of the fourth month following the closing of the taxable year of the partnership that files on behalf of its nonresident individual partners who chose to meet their tax responsibility by filing this Composite Return.

The return must be filed in the Department of the Treasury, Returns Processing Bureau, located at 10 Paseo Covadonga, Intendente Ramírez Building in Old San Juan, or sent by mail to the following address:

DEPARTMENT OF THE TREASURY
PO BOX 9022501
SAN JUAN PR 00902-2501

You may also file your return in your nearest regional Internal Revenue Collections office.

AUTOMATIC EXTENSION OF TIME TO FILE THE RETURN

A six (6) month automatic extension of time to file the return will be granted if it is requested not later than the due date to file the return.

The Partnership, on behalf of the nonresident individual partners who request to meet their tax responsibility by means of the composite return, may request this extension of time to the Secretary by filing the Request for Extension of Time to File the Income Tax Return (Form AS 2644), as follows:

- On the first line of Part I of Form AS 2644, the Partnership will include its employer identification number, leaving blank the social security number;
- On the second line of Part I under the Individual's First Name, you must write "Nonresident partners filing composite return Form 482.0(C)";
- On the next lines of Part I, the Partnership will include its address, telephone, business and e-mail address;
- The Partnership will complete Part II related to the aggregated income tax of the Partners included in the composite return, computed as described in the Instructions of Part II of Form 482.0(C);
- In Part III check Box "a" on line 17 that indicates Form 482.0(C); and
- The request for extension of time must be sworn under oath and signed by the managing Partner, administrator or other authorized representative of the Partnership.

An extension of time to file the return does not extend the time for the payment of the corresponding tax.

COLUMN OF CENTS

While completing the return, the column of cents will not be used. That way we can expedite its processing. It is important to remind you that it is not about rounding off, but eliminating the cents. See the following example:

PART III – CREDITS

On March 7, 2017, the Financial Advisory Authority and Fiscal Agency of Puerto Rico (“AAFAF”, for its Spanish acronym) issued Administrative Order No. OA-2017-01 (“OA-2017-01”) by which it created the Disbursements and Tax Concessions Authorization Committee (“CADCC”, for its Spanish acronym) to which it granted certain authorizations regarding the evaluation and granting of tax credits and delegated the responsibility of establishing limitations regarding the use and availability of the tax credits granted. Also, OA-2017-01 ordered the Secretary of Treasury (“Secretary”) to carry out an inventory of the tax credits granted and to require the holders of tax credits to report the amount granted of said credits, in the manner that the Secretary establishes for said purposes. The administrative order also establishes that, any credit holder that does not show evidence issued by the Secretary of compliance with the information requirement, will not be able to claim said tax credits.

For such purposes, on April 20, 2017, the Department of the Treasury issued the Internal Revenue Informative Bulletin No. 17-08 to notify that the requirement to carry out the inventory of tax credits would be met by electronically filing Form 480.71.1 (Informative Return for Tax Credits Holders) and established that the requirement imposed by AAFAF to submit evidence of compliance with the information requirement in order to claim the tax credits, would be met by electronically filing Form 480.71.1. Therefore, in order to claim a tax credit that has been granted and available as of April 19, 2017, it must be included in Form 480.71.1 that the credit holder submitted to the Department.

For its part, on July 2, 2018, AAFAF, through Administrative Order No. OA-2018-10 (“OA-2018-10”), repealed the OA-2017-01 and left the CADCC without effect prospectively. For such purposes, Section 1051.15(b)(1) of the Code provides that for taxable years commenced after December 31, 2017, the tax credits will not be subject to the limitations set forth in the resolutions issued by the CADCC during its existence, therefore, they will be subject only to the rules of use established in the special law under which the tax credit is granted and the applicable provisions of the Code. However, credits covered under Section 1051.12(a)(4), (5) and (7) of the Code will be subject to the use limitation provided in Section 1051.13 of the Code.

However, OA-2018-10 establishes that the Secretary will continue to perform and maintain the inventory of all tax credits and maintains the requirement of the OA-2017-01 that the credit holder must show evidence issued by the Secretary of the compliance with the information requirement to be able to claim a tax credit.

Every partnership that reports the distributable share of a tax credit from the partners included in this Composite Return, must submit with the Informative Return copy of the Form 480.71.1 duly filed with the Department.

In this part includes credits subject to moratorium, you must fill in the oval provided for this purpose.
