This schedule must be completed by any nonresident alien individual or foreign corporation or partnership subject to the provisions of Section 1123(f) of the Puerto Rico Internal Revenue Code of 1994, as amended (Code), to determine the portion of its entire net income that is treated as income from sources within Puerto Rico.

A schedule indicating the conversion to U.S. dollars must be submitted with the return.

In any other case, the entire net income shall be determined based on the principles of the Puerto Rico tax law. Where a taxpayer must compute its entire net income based on the Puerto Rico tax law (because its jurisdiction of organization does not impose a tax based on net income), the taxpayer should prepare a pro forma Puerto Rico tax return and reflect the entire net income figure of such pro forma return on this line. A copy of the pro forma return must be included with the return. Please make sure to label it as "PRO FORMA RETURN". The pro forma return does not need to be notarized before a notary public.

Property owned by a nonresident alien individual or foreign corporation or partnership shall be valued at its original cost plus the cost of additions and improvements.

Property rented by the nonresident alien individual or foreign corporation or partnership shall be valued at eight times the annual rental rate paid by the nonresident alien individual or foreign corporation or partnership.

The extent of such utilization shall be determined by multiplying the total value of such property by a fraction, the numerator of which is the number of days of physical location of the property in Puerto Rico during the taxable year and the denominator of which is the number of days of physical location of the property everywhere during the taxable year. The number of days of physical location of the property may be determined on a statistical basis or by such other reasonable method acceptable to the Secretary.

In addition, refer to Article 1123(f)-4(d)(3) of Regulation 6257 to determine whether purchases of tangible personal property that is not manufactured or produced in whole or in part in Puerto Rico by a member of the controlled group that includes the purchaser are considered as purchases of tangible personal property in Puerto Rico.

Purchases, other than purchases of tangible personal property, are in Puerto Rico if the income-producing activity of the seller is performed in Puerto Rico, or the income-producing activity of the seller is performed both in and outside Puerto Rico and a greater proportion of the income-producing activity is performed in Puerto Rico than in any state of the United States or foreign country, based on costs of performance.
