Auditor's Responsibility

Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audit. We conducted our audit in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. An audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. The procedures selected depend on the auditor's judgment, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error. In making those risk assessments, the auditor considers internal control relevant to the entity's preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the entity's internal control. INTRODUCTION

The State Insurance Fund Corporation (the Corporation, or SIFC) is a component unit of the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico (the Commonwealth) created by Act No. 45 of April 18, 1935, as amended, known as the Workmen Compensation Insurance Act (the Act). Under the provisions of the Act, the Corporation is the exclusive provider of insurance coverage for work related accidents, deaths, and illnesses suffered by workers in Puerto Rico. On October 29, 1992, the Act was amended by Law No. 83 to convert the agency into a governmental corporation and to establish the functions and responsibilities of the Board of Directors, the Administrator, and the Industrial Medical Advisory Board.

The Act provides that the Corporation's administrative expenses shall not exceed 22% of the total insurance premiums collected during the previous fiscal year. Administrative expenses exclude medical and hospitalization administrative expenses, depreciation and amortization expense, provision for (recoveries of) uncollectible accounts, interest expense and investment managers' fees. As expected, the ratio for the year ended June 30, 2021, was 13%, well within compliance.

This section presents a narrative overview and analysis of the financial performance of the Corporation as of and for the year ended June 30, 2021. The information presented here should be read in conjunction with the basic financial statements, including the notes thereto.

MANAGEMENT’S DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS
AS OF AND FOR THE YEAR ENDED JUNE 30, 2021

- Increased due to increase in insurance premiums earned $16.3 million
  - Decreased due to increase in reimbursement of insurance premiums $13.3 million
  - Increased due to reduction in the provision for uncollectible premiums $18.6 million
  - Increased due to reduction in compensation benefits expense $22.8 million
  - Decreased due to an increase in pension expense $42.0 million
  - Decreased due to increase in credit for compensation and medical benefits $20.7 million
- The increase in insurance premiums earned is less than 5% and can be attributed to increase in policies issued despite being under the influence of pandemic restrictions, offset by an increase in pandemic assistance to businesses.
  - Reimbursement of insurance premiums was 37.2% higher than prior year, which can be attributed to reduced payroll during pandemic requiring reimbursement of excess premiums paid by businesses.
  - The change in the provision for uncollectible premiums represents a reduction of 89.1%, the result in a smaller change in the estimated reserve requirements that can be attributed to the increase in reimbursements of insurance premiums discussed above.
  - Compensation benefits expense was 43.8% lower than prior year. This can be attributed to the lower accidents at work while restrictions for the pandemic were in place.
  - The change in pension expense was 53.7% and was a result of change in estimates by external actuaries, something the Corporation has no control of.
  - The credit for compensation and medical benefits increased by 36.8% and was the result of adjustments to benefits awarded being more favorable to beneficiaries.

The Corporation recognizes as income the subscribed premiums, which represent the preliminary premiums assessed at the beginning of the fiscal year plus additional premiums imposed or expected to be imposed because of the final settlement of premiums under the insurance policy or reduced by any unearned or reimbursable portion or provision for uncollectible accounts, as determined.

Premiums are based on individual employers' reported payroll ledgers using predetermined insurance rates based on the employers' risk classifications. The regular policies are issued for a one-year period consistent with the Corporation's fiscal year, which runs from July 1 to June 30. Incidental policies are issued to cover special risks over a pre-determined period. Unearned premiums represent the remaining portion at the end of the fiscal year, which is attributed to the unexpired term of the incidental policies issued during the fiscal year.

Policy costs consist mainly of salaries and certain underwriting expenses. Benefits are recorded on an accrual basis, which includes benefits paid and a liability to cover estimated incurred but unpaid benefits and benefit adjustments expenses based on the ultimate settling cost, as determined by the independent actuary.

GOING CONCERN — COMMONWEALTH OF PUERTO RICO

The Commonwealth of Puerto Rico (Commonwealth) has been facing severe fiscal, economic and liquidity crisis, resulting from many years of significant governmental deficits, a prolonged economic recession, high unemployment, population decline, and high levels of debt and pension obligations. Further, stressing the Commonwealth's liquidity is the vulnerability of revenue streams during times of major economic downturns and large health care, pension, and debt service costs. As the Commonwealth's tax base shrunk and its revenues affected by prevailing economic conditions, health care, pension and debt service costs have become an increasing portion of the General Fund budget, which resulted in reduced funding available for other essential services, like subsidies to municipalities, healthcare, staffing and employee benefits. Under these circumstances, the Commonwealth could not pay all its obligations as they come due while at the same time providing essential government services.

To assist the Commonwealth with the crisis, the U.S. Congress passed in May of 2016 the Puerto Rico Oversight, Management and Economic Stability Act (PROMESA), which established an Oversight Board. On May 3, 2017, the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico and the Oversight Board filed for bankruptcy under Title III of PROMESA and forced the curtailment of expenses and reorganization of operations to prepare the Commonwealth restructuring of its debt. The curtailment of expenses affected the Commonwealth's operations including that of the Corporation, primarily through limitations in level of expenses the staff reductions.

Notwithstanding the financial constraints imposed by the Oversight Board, the Corporation foresees continuing to experience positive results from operations and related cash flows.

Notes to Basic Financial Statements

1. ORGANIZATION

The State Insurance Fund Corporation (the Corporation) is a component unit of the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico (the Commonwealth) created by Law No. 45 of April 18, 1935, as amended, known as the Workmen Compensation Insurance Act (the Act 45-1935). The objectives of the law are to: protect workers against the effects of employment related accidents and illness; establish employers' responsibility to insure its employees; establish the type of insurance coverage; and regulate the insurance coverage to make it mandatory for employers. On October 29, 1992, the Act 45-1935 was amended by Law No. 83 to convert the agency into a governmental Corporation and to establish the functions and responsibilities of the Corporation's Board of Directors and Administrator, and the Industrial Medical Advisory Board. The Corporation provides insurance to public and private employees against injuries, disability, or death due to work or employment related accidents, or because of illness suffered as a consequence of their employment.

2. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

The accounting and reporting policies of the Corporation conform to accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America, as applicable to governmental entities. The Governmental Accounting Standards Board (GASB) is the accepted standard-setting body for establishing governmental accounting and financial reporting policies.

The Corporation follows GASB Statement No. 76, The Hierarchy of Generally Accepted Principles for State and Local Governments, in the preparation of its financial statements.

Following is a description of the most significant accounting policies:

(a) Reporting Entity

The Governmental Accounting Standards Board (GASB) establishes the criteria used in determining which organizations should be included in these financial statements. The GASB's Codification of Governmental Accounting and Financial Reporting Standards, Section 2100, requires the inclusion of government organizations for which the Corporation is financially accountable. Financial accountability is defined as 1) appointment of a voting majority of the component unit's board and either (a) the ability to impose will by the primary government or (b) the possibility that the component unit will provide a financial benefit to or impose a financial burden on the primary government; or (2) fiscal dependency on the primary government. The Corporation does not have component units for which it is financially accountable. The Corporation is a major component unit of the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico.

2. Summary of significant accounting policies (continuation)

(b) *Basis of Accounting

The Corporation accounts for insurance premiums, claim costs, acquisition costs, loss contingencies and other related costs in accordance with provisions of the GASB Statement No. 10, Accounting and Financial Reporting for Risk Financing and Related Insurance Issues, as amended, which requires that the financial statements of the Corporation be presented on the accrual basis of accounting in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

(c) *Basis of Presentation

The Corporation's financial statements use the economic resources measurement focus and the accrual basis of accounting.

The Statement of Net Position (Deficit) and the statement of revenues, expenses, and changes in net position report information on all activities of the Corporation. The Statement of Net Position (Deficit) presents the Corporation's assets, deferred outflows of resources, liabilities, and deferred inflows of resources, with the residual of all elements presented in a financial position statement reported as net position. Net position is reported in three categories:

- Net investment in capital assets consists of capital assets, net of accumulated depreciation and amortization and reduced by outstanding balances for bonds, notes, and other debt that are attributed to the acquisition, construction, or improvement of those assets.
- Restricted consists of net position that is legally restricted by outside parties or by law through constitutional provisions or enabling legislation.
- Unrestricted consists of net position that does not meet the definition of the two preceding categories. Unrestricted net position often is designated, to indicate that management does not consider it to be available for general operations. Unrestricted net position often has constraints on use that are imposed by management, but such constraints may be removed or modified.

2. Summary of significant accounting policies (continuation)

The statement of revenues, expenses, and changes in net position presents information on how the Corporation's net position changed during the reporting period. The Corporation distinguishes operating revenues and expenses from non-operating items. Operating revenues and expenses are those that result from the Corporation providing the services that correspond to their principal ongoing operations, which include those that result from providing insurance coverage and compensation benefits to the injured and disabled workers, including death benefits. Revenues and expenses not meeting these definitions are reported as non-operating revenues and expenses.

The statement of cash flows shows changes in cash and cash equivalents, resulting from operating, non-capital and capital financing and investing activities, which include cash receipts and cash disbursements information.

(d) *Revenue Recognition and Unearned Premiums

The Corporation recognizes as income the subscribed premiums, which include the preliminary premiums assessed at the beginning of the fiscal year plus additional premiums imposed because of the final settlement of premiums under the insurance policy during the year and an estimate for additional premiums not yet imposed. Premiums are based on individual employers' reported payroll ledgers using predetermined insurance rates based on employers' risk classifications. The regular policies are issued for a one-year period consistent with the Corporation's fiscal year, which runs from July 1 to June 30. Incidental policies are issued to cover special risks over a pre-determined period. Unearned premiums represent the remaining portion at the end of the fiscal year, which is attributed to the unexpired term of the incidental policies issued during the fiscal year.

Insurance premiums due to the Corporation are recorded as insurance premiums receivable, net of the allowance for uncollectible accounts. Premium's receivables consist of both billed and unbilled amounts. Unbilled amounts include premiums for policies, which have not been assessed plus an estimate for additional premiums that are expected to be imposed because of the final settlement of premiums under the insurance policy.

The estimates made for the additional and the reimbursable premiums are based on previous experience. The difference between the estimated and the actual amount of the premiums and the reimbursable premiums is recorded in the year when it is determined. The estimate of additional premiums is determined by management and covers the result of the final settlement of premium under the policies and through the audit of the employers' payroll ledgers. The accrual of premiums to be reimbursed represents an estimate actuarially determined based on the historical and projected results of the settlement of premiums under the policies. These amounts are estimates, and while the Corporation believes such amounts are reasonable, there can be no assurance that the amounts ultimately received or disbursed will equal the recorded amounts.

The accrual for reimbursement of premiums is discounted to reflect the present value of future reimbursable premium payments. Management believes that discounting such liability results in a better matching of costs and revenues since reimbursable premiums have a long payment cycle. Current and non-current portions of the liability for reimbursement of premiums are based on projected actuarially determined payments.

(e) *Policy Acquisition Costs

Acquisition costs consist of salaries and certain underwriting expenses, which are primarily related to the issuance of new policies. These costs are expensed as incurred since regular policies are issued for a one-year period, which is consistent with the Corporation's fiscal year, July 1st to June 30th. Acquisition costs related to incidental policies with terms beyond one year are deemed to be insignificant and are charged to expense as incurred.

(f) *Reinsurance

The Corporation does not use reinsurance agreements to reduce its exposure to large losses.

(g) *Incurred but Unpaid Benefits and Benefit Adjustment Expenses

All liabilities have been discounted at the requests of the Corporation. All future cash flows associated with benefits are discounted using an interest rate provided by the Corporation of 3.376% for the discounting of loss.

The loss runoff is based upon the selected paid loss development factors for each benefit type. Reserves for LAE have been discounted at an annual interest rate of 3.376% as well. The return premium liability is discounted to July 1, 2021 using an annual interest rate of 3.076 %, which was also provided by the CFSE.

Benefit expenses are recorded as incurred. The Corporation establishes liabilities for estimated incurred but unpaid benefits and benefit adjustment expenses based on the ultimate estimated cost of settling the benefits. Incurred but unpaid benefits and benefit adjustment expenses include: (a) individual case estimates for reported cases (b) aggregate accrual estimates for reported and unreported cases based on experience modified for current trends, and (c) an estimate of expenses for investigating and settling cases. The liabilities for cases reported which have not been adjudged and cases incurred but not yet reported are estimated by an independent actuary. The estimated liability also includes cases under reconsideration or on appeal before the Industrial Commission of Puerto Rico, a governmental agency, for additional medical treatment or benefits.

Management believes that discounting such liability results in a better matching of costs and revenues since compensation benefits have a long payment cycle.

Management believes that the liability for incurred but unpaid benefits and benefit adjustment expenses, actuarially determined on June 30, 2021, is a reasonable estimate of the ultimate net cost of settling benefits and benefit expenses incurred. Because actual benefit costs depend upon such factors as duration of worker disability, medical cost trends, occupational disease, inflation, and other social and economic factors, the process used in computing the ultimate cost of settling benefits and expenses for administering benefits is necessarily based on estimates. The amount ultimately paid may be above or below such estimates. Adjustments resulting from changes in estimates of these liabilities are charged or credited to operations in the period in which they occur. Current and non-current portions of the liability for estimated incurred but unpaid benefits and benefit adjustment expenses are based on projected actuarially determined payments.

(h) *Securities Purchased under Agreements to Resell

From time to time, the Corporation enters into purchases of securities under agreements to resell (resell agreements). The amounts advanced under these agreements generally represent short-term loans and are reflected as an asset. The securities underlying these agreements are usually held by the broker or his/her agent, with whom the agreement is transacted.

(i) *Investments

Investments mainly include U.S. government and agencies' obligations, mortgage-backed securities, and corporate debt and equity obligations. Investments are recorded at fair value in accordance with GASB Statement No. 72, Fair Value Measurement and Application (GASB 72). Accordingly, the change in fair value of investments is recognized as an increase or decrease to investment assets and investment income. Investments in equity securities with readily determinable fair values and all investments in debt securities are carried at fair value. Money market investments with a remaining maturity at time of purchase of one year or less are carried at cost. Investment positions in 2a–7 like external investment pools is carried at the pools' share price. Fair value is determined based on quoted market prices and quotations received from independent broker/dealers or pricing service organizations. The Corporation has private equity investments, whose fair values have been estimated in the absence of readily determinable fair values. This estimate is based on information provided by the underlying fund managers. Securities transactions are accounted for on the trade date. Realized gains and losses from the sale of securities and unrealized changes in the fair value of outstanding securities are included in net increase (decrease) in fair value of investments. Realized gains and losses are computed as the difference between the proceeds of the sale and the original cost of the investment sold. Gains and losses on the sale of securities are determined based on the specific identification method.

(j) *Securities Lending Transactions

The Corporation accounts for and reports its security lending transactions in accordance with the provisions of GASB Statement No. 28, Accounting and Financial Reporting for Securities Lending Transactions, as amended. This statement establishes standards of accounting and financial reporting for securities lending transactions in which governmental entities (lenders) transfer their securities to broker–dealers and other entities (borrowers) for collateral and simultaneously agree to return the collateral for the same securities in the future. Cash received as collateral on securities lending transactions and investments made with that cash are reported as assets. Securities received as collateral are reported as assets if the Corporation can pledge or sell them without a borrower default. Liabilities resulting from these securities lending transactions also are reported in the Statement of Net Position (Deficit). Securities lending transactions collateralized by letters of credit or by securities that the Corporation does not have the ability to pledge or sell unless the borrower defaults are not reported as assets and liabilities in the Statement of Net Position (Deficit).

There were no outstanding securities lending transactions as of June 30, 2021.

(k) *Allowance for Doubtful Accounts

The allowance for uncollectible insurance premiums and other receivables is an amount that management believes will be adequate to absorb possible losses on existing receivables that may become uncollectible based on evaluations of the collectability of the receivables and prior credit loss experience. Because of uncertainties inherent in the estimation process, the related allowance may change in the future.

(l) *Inventories

Inventories are stated at lower of cost, (first-in/first-out method) or net realizable value.

(m) *Capital Assets

Capital assets are stated at cost. Depreciation and amortization expense is computed using the straight-line method over the estimated useful lives of the assets, or in the case of assets under capital lease, over the term of the lease, whichever is shorter. The Corporation records as capital expenditures, assets with an individual cost of more than $500. The useful lives of these assets are as follow:

Description	Useful Lives
Buildings and improvements	3-50 years
Medical and office equipment	3-10 years
Software and related assets	3-5 years
Motor vehicles	5 years
Assets under capital lease	Lease Term

Expenditures for repairs and maintenance, which do not extend the useful lives of the assets, are charged to operations in the year incurred. At the time capital assets are sold or otherwise disposed, the cost and related accumulated depreciation are removed from the books and the resulting gain or loss, if any, is credited or charged to operations.

The Corporation capitalizes interest cost incurred in the construction of significant real estate projects, which consist primarily of facilities for its own use. The amount of interest cost to be capitalized for qualifying assets is intended to be that portion of the interest cost incurred during the assets' acquisition periods that theoretically could have been avoided if outlays for the assets had not been made.

(n) *Accounting for the Impairment of Capital Assets

The Corporation accounts for asset impairment under the provisions of GASB Statement No. 42, Accounting and Financial Reporting for Impairment of Capital Assets and for Insurance Recoveries. This statement establishes accounting and financial reporting standards for impairments of capital assets. A capital asset is considered impaired when its service utility has declined significantly and unexpectedly. A capital asset generally should be considered impaired if both (a) the decline in service utility of the capital asset is large in magnitude and (b) the event or change in circumstances are outside the normal life cycle of the capital asset. Impaired capital assets that will no longer be used by the Corporation should be reported at the lower of carrying value or fair value. No impairment of assets occurred in fiscal year 2021.

(o) *Deferred Outflows and Inflows of Resources

The Corporation reports deferred outflows and inflows of resources in addition to assets and liabilities. A deferred outflow of resources is a consumption of net position by the Corporation that is applicable to a future reporting period. A deferred inflow of resources represents an acquisition of net position by the Corporation that is applicable to a future period. Pension related deferred outflows and inflows of resources may include changes in proportionate share contributions, contributions to the pension plan subsequent to the measurement date, differences between expected and actual experience in the total pension liability and net difference between projected and actual earnings on pension plan investments.

(p) *Compensated Absences

Compensated absences, for vacation pay, are accrued when incurred using the pay or salary rates in effect at the Statement of Net Position (Deficit)'s date. The employees of the Corporation are granted 30 days of vacation. An additional amount is accrued to a maximum permitted by Act No. 66 of 2014 for certain salary related benefits associated with the payment of compensated absences. In the event of employee resignation, an employee is reimbursed for accumulated vacation of to the maximum allowed by the Act.

(q) *Termination Benefits

The Corporation accounts for termination benefits in accordance with the provisions of GASB Statement No. 47, Accounting for Termination Benefits. This Statement establishes accounting standards for termination benefits. Pursuant to this Statement, the Corporation should recognize a liability and expense for voluntary termination benefits (for example, early-retirement incentives) when the offer is accepted, and the amount can be estimated. On June 30, 2021, no formal voluntary termination benefits were incurred.

(r) *Pensions

The Corporation accounts for pension costs under the provisions of GASB Statement No. 73, Accounting and Financial Reporting for Pension and Related Assets that are not within the Scope of GASB Statement 68, and amendments to certain Provisions of GASB Statements 67 and 68.

The requirements of this Statement extend the approach to accounting and financial reporting established in Statement 68 to all pensions, with modifications as necessary to reflect that for accounting and financial reporting purposes, any assets accumulated for pensions that are provided through pension plans that are not administered through trusts that meet the criteria specified in Statement 68 should not be considered pension plan assets. It also requires that information similar to that required by Statement 68 be included in notes to financial statements and required supplementary information by all similarly situated employers and non-employer contributing entities.

This Statement also clarifies the application of certain provisions of Statements 67 and 68 regarding the following issues:

1. Information that is required to be presented as notes to the 10-year schedules of required supplementary information about investment-related factors that significantly affect trends in the amounts reported
2. Accounting and financial reporting for separately financed specific liabilities of individual employers and non-employer contributing entities for defined benefit pensions
3. Timing of employer recognition of revenue for the support of nonemployer contributing entities not in a special funding situation.

(s) *Postemployment Benefits Other Than Pensions

Other postemployment benefits (OPEB) expense is recognized and disclosed using the accrual basis of accounting. The Corporation recognizes the total OPEB liability since the Corporation's OPEB program is funded on pay-as-you-go basis. Changes in the total OPEB liability during the period are recorded as OPEB expense, or as deferred inflows of resources and deferred outflows of resources depending on the nature of the change, in the period incurred. Those charges in total OPEB liability that are recorded as deferred inflow of resources or deferred outflows of resources that arise from changes in actuarial assumptions or other inputs and differences between expected or actual experience are amortized over the average of the remaining service life of all participants including retirees and recorded as a component of OPEB expense beginning with the period in which they arose. The Corporation accounted for postemployment benefits other than pensions under the provisions of GASB Statement

No. 75 “Accounting and Financial Reporting for Postemployment Benefits Other Than Pensions”.

(t) *Income Taxes

The Corporation, as a component unit of the Commonwealth, is exempt from the payment of income taxes.

(u) *Statement of Cash Flows

The accompanying statement of cash flows is presented in accordance with the provisions of GASB Statement No. 9, Reporting Cash Flows of Proprietary and Nonexpendable Trust Funds and Governmental Entities that Use Proprietary Fund Accounting. The provisions of governmental accounting standards require that the direct method be used to present the funds inflows and outflows of the Corporation. For purposes of the statement of cash flows, the Corporation considers all highly liquid debt instruments with maturities of three months or less when purchased to be cash equivalents.

(v) *Risk Management

The Corporation is exposed to the risk of loss from torts, theft, damages to, and destruction of assets, errors and omissions, employee injuries and illnesses, natural disasters, environmental and other losses. Commercial insurance coverage is obtained for claims that may arise from such matters. The commercial insurance coverage is negotiated by the Department of the Treasury of the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico, and the cost is paid by the Corporation. No additional payments were made after the annual insurance costs were determined.

(w) *Use of Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles in the United States of America requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and the disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates. The accounts requiring the use of significant estimates include certain receivables, liability for incurred but unpaid benefits and benefit adjustment expenses, unearned premiums reserve, accrual for reimbursement of premiums, pension and OPEB liabilities, deferred outflows and inflows of resources and useful lives of property and equipment. The current economic environment has increased the degree of uncertainty inherent in these estimates and assumptions.

(x) *Implementation of accounting standards

The provisions of the following Governmental Accounting Board (GASB) Statements are effective and have been implemented, when applicable, during the year ended June 30, 2021.

GASB Statement No. 83, Certain Asset Retirement Obligations. This Statement addresses accounting and financial reporting for certain asset retirement obligations (AROs). An ARO is a legally enforceable liability associated with the retirement of a tangible capital asset. A government that has legal obligations to perform future asset retirement activities related to its tangible capital assets should recognize a liability based on the guidance in this Statement. GASB No. 83 does not have any impact on the Corporation's basic financial statements.

GASB Statement No. 84, Fiduciary Activities. The objective of this Statement is to improve guidance regarding the identification of fiduciary activities for accounting and financial reporting purposes and how those activities should be reported. GASB No. 84 does not have any impact on the Corporation's basic financial statements.

GASB Statement No. 88, Certain Disclosures Related to Debt, including Direct Borrowings and Direct Placements. The primary objective of this Statement is to improve the information that is disclosed in notes to government financial statements related to debt, including direct borrowings and direct placements. It also clarifies which liabilities governments should include when disclosing information related to debt. This Statement defines debt for purposes of disclosure in notes to financial statements as a liability that arises from a contractual obligation to pay cash (or other assets that may be used in lieu of cash) in one or more payments to settle an amount that is fixed at the date the contractual obligation is established. GASB No. 88 does not have any impact on the Corporation's basic financial statements.

(y) *Accounting Pronouncements issued but not yet effective

GASB has issued the following accounting standards that the Authority has not yet adopted. The effective dates for certain pronouncements have been amended to reflect the deferral in Statement No. 95.

3. CASH AND CASH EQUIVALENTS

The Corporation's cash and cash equivalents as of June 30, 2021, are comprised of the following:

Description
Cash on hand	$ 9,800
Cash in commercial banks	409,606,207
Total	$ 409,616,007

Custodial Credit Risk

Custodial credit risk related to deposits is the risk that, in the event of the failure of a financial institution, the Corporation's deposits or collateral securities might not be recovered. Under Puerto Rico statutes, public funds deposited in commercial banks must be fully collateralized for the amount deposited more than federal depository insurance ($250,000 on June 30, 2021).

All securities pledged as collateral are held by the Secretary of Treasury of the Commonwealth. As of June 30, 2021, the Corporation had approximately $409.1 million in depository balance with a financial institution, which were insured and/or collateralized.

Foreign Current Risk

Foreign currency risk is the risk that changes in exchange rates will adversely affect the value of a deposit. Cash in foreign currency present minimal foreign currency risk on June 30, 2021. See Note 4 for additional information related to credit risk, foreign currency risk and custodial credit risk on cash equivalent investments.

4. INVESTMENTS

The Board of Directors (BOD) of the Corporation has enacted the Statement of Investment Policy, Guidelines and Objectives (the SIPGO) (amended on June 18, 2018), with the objective of providing general and specific guidance for the maximization of resources available for the payment of benefits to injured workers as the pervasive goal of the workers' compensation coverage of its insurance program. SIPGO sets as the primary objective for the available funds, to maximize the yield of invested assets, while having the adequate liquidity to pay obligations as they become due.

The strategic objective is accomplished through a proper mix of adequate time horizon, risk tolerance and return expectation, and is achieved through strategic assets allocation. SIPGO provides guidance for the strategic assets' allocation including the internally managed short-term funds, securities selection and related restrictions; sets the responsibilities of the BOD, the Corporation's management, investment consultants, portfolio managers, and custodians. The SIPGO establishes standards for review and communication of compliance with the prevailing policies and procedures. The SIPGO also provides that the Finance Committee of the BOD (the Finance Committee) is responsible for implementing and monitoring the investment program of the Corporation. The Finance Committee meets on a quarterly basis. The SIPGO, as amended, allows management to purchase or enter the following investment instruments:

- United States Government and agencies obligations
- Obligations of the Commonwealth, its agencies, municipalities, public Corporations and instrumentalities
- Government National Mortgage Association (GNMA)
- Mortgage pass-through guaranteed by United States Government agencies other than GNMA, such as Federal Home Loan Mortgage Corporation (FHLMC) and Federal National Mortgage Association (FNMA), among others

- Money market funds and bank-sponsored short-term investment funds

- Collateralized mortgage obligations (CMOs)
- Senior secured loans
- Certificates of deposit
- Principal protected structured notes

- Options, futures and interest–rate swap agreements for hedging and risk control purposes, as well as for the creation of synthetic products, which qualify under any of the foregoing investment categories
- Open–end mutual funds with acceptable underlying assets and rated AAA by Standard & Poor’s or AAA by Moody’s
- Securities lending transactions

The SIPGO, as amended, establishes limitations and other guidelines on amounts to be invested in the aforementioned investment categories and by issuer/counterparty and on exposure by country. In addition, such policy provides guidelines on the institutions with which investment transactions can be entered. Further, the BOD of the Corporation will determine, from time to time, other transactions that the Corporation may enter. Certain investment transactions that are generally considered to carry a greater than normal risk, require prior approval of the BOD. As of June 30, 2021, investments were classified as current and non-current in the accompanying Statement of Net Position (Deficit) as follows:

Current assets:
Investments in debt and equity securities	$ 655,761,435
Total current assets	655,761,435
Non-current assets	230,968,670
Total	$ 886,730,105

The Corporation did not hold cash equivalents as of June 30, 2021.

Fair Value of Investments

The Corporation measures and records its investments using fair value measurement guidelines established by generally accepted accounting principles. These guidelines recognize a three-tiered fair value hierarchy, as follows:

- Level 1: Quoted prices for identical investments in active markets;
- Level 2: Observable inputs other than quoted market prices; and,
- Level 3: Unobservable inputs.

On February 20, 2020, the Corporation became aware that the Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC) had filed a civil enforcement action in the United States District Court for the Middle District of Florida against defendants Kinetic Investment Group, LLC and Michael Scott Williams (collectively, defendants). In their Complaint, the SEC alleged that the defendants conducted a fraudulent and unregistered securities offering that raised approximately $39 million from several dozen investors located in Florida and Puerto Rico. Subsequently, the Corporation recovered $7.2 million (see Note 20) of the approximately $19.7 million in fair value recorded in its books on June 30, 2019, prior to becoming aware of this situation. Since the Corporation became aware of the impairment before issuing its financial statements for the year ended June 30, 2019, it recognized as of that date the impaired value of the investment and recorded a receivable for the amount subsequently received. The $7.2 million was collected as of June 30, 2021.

The Corporation's investment managers generally use the market approach to value its investment securities, which uses prices and other relevant information generated by market transactions involving identical or similar assets, liabilities or a group of assets and liabilities. Debt and equity securities classified in Level 1 are valued using prices quoted in active markets for those securities. Debt and equity securities classified in Level 2 of the fair value hierarchy are valued using either a bid evaluation or a matrix pricing technique. Bid evaluations may include market quotations, yields, maturities, call features and ratings. Matrix pricing is used to value securities based on the securities' relationship to benchmark quoted prices. Equity securities, namely private equity funds, classified in Level 3 are valued using financial information provided by individual capital fund managers, adjusted if deemed appropriate. Investments valued using the net asset value (NAV) per share (or its equivalent) are considered "alternative investments" and, unlike more traditional investments, generally do not have readily obtainable market values and take the form of limited partnerships. The Corporation values these investments based on the partnerships' unaudited financial statements. If June 30 statements are available, those values are used preferentially.

However, some partnerships have fiscal years ending at other than June 30. If June 30 valuations are not available, the value is progressed from the most recently available valuation considering subsequent calls and distributions.

The fair value of investments in limited partnerships and alternative investments as of June 30, 2021, amounted to approximately $311.4 million. The fair values of these investments have been estimated by the corresponding general partner or fund manager of these partnerships and disclosed in its respective separate audited financial statements. The allocations of net gain and net loss to the limited partners are based on certain percentages, as established in the limited partnership agreements. The following table presents the unfunded commitments for the alternative investments measured at NAV:

4. Investments (continuation)

Interest risk is the risk that changes in interest rates of debt investments will adversely affect the fair value of an investment. The Administration manages its exposure to declines in fair value by (1) maintaining a diversified portfolio of debt and equity investments and (2) diversifying the weighted average maturity of its investments in debt securities.

Credit Risk

The credit risk related to investments is the risk that debt securities in the Corporation's portfolio will decline in price or fail to make principal and interest payments when due because the issuer of the security experiences a decline in the financial condition. The Corporation limits its credit risk by investing principally in high quality investments (rated BBB or better, according to Standard and Poor's or other equivalent rating agencies when maturities are longer than a year). Up to 20% of the total fixed income portfolio may be invested at any time in Selective High Yield securities (i.e., securities rated below BBB), but never lower than B. BBB is the lowest of investment grade ratings. In addition, the Corporation restricts investment in certain securities to avoid concentration and/or increase duration.

All the Corporation's investments in U.S. Treasury securities and mortgage-backed securities guaranteed carry the explicit guarantee of the U.S. government and represent no risk. The credit quality ratings for investments in debt securities, on June 30, 2021, are as follows:

In accordance with its investment policy, the Corporation manages its exposure to declines in fair values by structuring the investment portfolio so that securities mature to meet cash requirements for compensation and medical benefit payments, thereby avoiding the need to sell securities on the open market prior to maturity. Investments in equity securities are not subject to the maximum maturity policy since they do not carry a maturity date. The Corporation is expected to achieve capital preservation and income generation by investing in

9. LIABILITY FOR INCURRED BUT UNPAID BENEFITS AND BENEFIT ADJUSTMENT EXPENSES

The liability for incurred but unpaid benefits and benefit adjustment expenses is based on historical claims experience data, assumptions, and projections as to future events, including claims frequency, severity, persistency, and inflationary trends determined by an independent actuarial study. This liability has been discounted at 3.379% in 2021. The actuarial study for 2021 considered the experience of the Corporation from fiscal years 2003–2004 to 2020–2021 and included estimates for cases reported that have not been adjudged and cases incurred but not reported. The assumptions used in estimating and establishing the liability are reviewed annually based on current circumstances and trends. Any resulting adjustments are a change in an accounting estimate and accounted for as an increase (decrease) to expenses of the Corporation during the current period.

The Corporation has established a liability for both, reported and unreported insured events, which includes estimates of future payment of benefits and related benefit adjustment expenses. The liability for incurred but unpaid benefits and benefit adjustment expenses as of June 30, 2021, consists of:

On June 17, 2014, the Legislature of the Commonwealth enacted Act No. 66-2014, the “Fiscal Sustainability Act”. This Act requires that all instrumentalities, entities, agencies and public Corporations of the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico reduce their operating expenses, specifically those related to payroll, professional services, contracted services and leases, among others. During the effective term of this Act, the excess accumulation of vacation and sick leave will not be paid to employees. The employees should exhaust the excess accumulation by the end of each fiscal year. The Act also establishes that the Christmas bonus paid to eligible employees shall not exceed $600. The Corporation is required to transfer the savings resulting from the enactment of this Act to the “Fund of Services and Therapies for Special Education Students”, in equal monthly installments during fiscal year 2015, and an equal amount shall be transferred during fiscal years 2020 and 2021.

11. ACCRUAL FOR REIMBURSEMENT OF PREMIUMS

As of June 30, 2021, the accrual for reimbursement of premiums as determined by the independent actuary was classified as current and non-current in the accompanying Statement of Net Position (Deficit) as follows:

Description	Amount
Current	$ 46,963,218
Non-current	28,644,371
Total	$ 75,607,589

The provision for reimbursement of insurance premiums for the year ended June 30, 2021, amounted approximately to $75.6 million, including a current year debit of approximately $0.5 million, to reflect changes in the accrual for reimbursement of premiums determined by an independent actuary. The accrual for reimbursement of premiums is discounted to reflect the present value of future reimbursable premium payments. Management believes that discounting such liability results in a better matching of costs and revenues since reimbursable premiums have a long payment cycle.

12. OBLIGATION UNDER CAPITAL LEASES

13. Transactions with Governmental Agencies (continuation)

The expenses incurred by the Industrial Commission of Puerto Rico are covered by the Corporation under the provisions of Law No. 45 of April 18, 1935. These expenses shall not exceed 4% of the total of insurance premiums collected during the previous fiscal year. The $35.7 million represent a 5.4% of prior year's insurance premium earned. The contributions to the Department of Labor and Human Resources, Occupational Safety and Health and Labor Standards Offices, are in accordance with the applicable legislation as of July 20, 1990, which authorizes the Corporation to transfer certain amounts as prescribed by law to cover operational expenses of the above-mentioned offices. The contributions to the Department of the Family are made under the provisions of Law No. 243, of July 23, 1974, which requires the Corporation to transfer to the Vocational Rehabilitation Program an amount not to exceed $600,000 each year for the vocational rehabilitation of injured workers.

Act No. 3 of January 27, 2017, known as "Ley para Atender la Crisis Económica, Fiscal y Presupuestaria para Garantizar el Funcionamiento del Gobierno de Puerto Rico", Article 15 stated the contribution of savings resulting from the cost reduction measure referred to in this Law on public corporations in the field of health to the deficit of the General Fund. The savings generated by the Corporation, because of the application of the provisions of this Act, if any, will be contributed to the "Special Education Student Services and Therapies Fund", in the custody of the Department of Education, during the term of this Act. During fiscal year ending June 30, 2021, the Corporation achieved significant reductions in its operating expenses to cover the commitments established with the yearly current claims of the injured workers. In this year, the Corporation recognized and complied with the disability payments, workers allowances, housekeepers, assistance equipment and funeral expenses that had not been included in the general budget of the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico. Thus, the achievements made in the reductions in expenses were not classified as savings, but rather as a source of funds to cover the requirements established in Law 45 with their injured parties.

In summary, our budgetary analysis shows that all the funds allocated were used without any surpluses that qualify as savings to be disbursed on behalf of the Treasury Department. During 2021, the Financial Oversight and Management Board for Puerto Rico, under the PROMESA Act, assigned to the Corporation a $9,000,000 contribution on each budget for the fiscal years ending in 2020-2020 and 2020-2021 corresponding for the fiscal year 2019-2020 and 2020-2020 in compliance with the Act 3.

A. Description of the Plan

Prior to August 23, 2017, the Employee's Retirement System of the Government of the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico (ERS) implemented a cost-sharing multi-employer defined benefit pension plan administered by the Puerto Rico Government Employees and Judiciary Retirement Systems Administration. Employees of the Corporation participate in the ERS. The ERS is a trust created by Act No. 447, approved on May 15, 1951, as amended (Act No. 447-1951) and began operation on January 1952, at which date, contributions by employers and participating employees commenced. All qualified permanent and probationary employees of the Commonwealth and its instrumentalities and of certain municipalities and component units not covered by their own retirement system are eligible to participate in the ERS. As of June 30, 2015, there were 206 participating employers (73 Commonwealth agencies, 78 municipalities, and 55 public corporations, including the ERS). Membership is optional for the Governor, head of public agencies, and instrumentalities, among others. The ERS, as a governmental retirement plan, is excluded from the provisions of the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974 (ERISA).

Certain provisions are different for the three groups of members who entered the ERS prior to July 1, 2013, as described below.

- Members of Act No. 1 are generally those members hired on or after April 1, 1990 (Act No. 1-1990) and on or before December 31, 1999 (Defined Contribution Program).
- Members of Act No. 305 are generally those members hired on or after January 1, 2000 and on or before June 30, 2013 (Define Contributory Hybrid Program). Each member has a no forfeitable right to the value of his/her account. Members have three options to invest their contributions. Investment income is credited to the member's account semiannually. The Commonwealth does not guarantee benefits at retirement age.

All regular employees hired for the first time on or after July 1, 2013, and former employees who participated in the Defined Benefit Program and the Defined Contributory Hybrid Program, and were rehired on or after July 1, 2013, become members of the Defined Contributory Hybrid Program as a condition to their employment. In addition, employees who on June 30, 2013, were participants of previous programs will become part of the Contributory Hybrid Program on July 1, 2013.

The assets of the Defined Benefit Program, the Defined Contribution Program and the Contributory Hybrid Program are pooled and invested by the ERS. Future benefit payments will be paid from the same pool of assets.

The information disclosed below is presented in accordance with these standards. The Corporation’s Total Pension Liability was measured as of June 30, 2020, The total pension liability used to calculate the Pension Liability for the year ended June 30, 2021, was determined by an actuarial valuation date of July 1, 2019. The reporting date is for periods ending July 1, 2019, through June 30, 2020.

The Corporation’s proportion of the Total Pension Liability was based on a projection of the Corporation’s long-term share of contributions to the pension plans program relative to the projected contributions of all participating employers, actuarially determined.

As June 30, 2020, the measurement date, the Corporation’s proportionate share of the Total Pension Liability used was as follows:

d. Actuarial Methods and Assumptions

There have been no significant changes between the valuation date of July 1, 2019, and the fiscal year end. For this year, the June 30, 2020, census data used in the prior valuation as the July 1, 2020. The liability results as of June 30, 2021, were based on projecting the ERS obligations determined as of the census data collection date of July 1, 2020, for one year, using roll-forward methods and assuming no liability gains or losses.

14. Pension Liability (continuation)

Actuarial valuations of ERS involves estimates of the reported amount and assumptions about probability of occurrence of events far into the future. Examples include assumptions about future employment mortality and future salary increases. Amounts determined regarding the net pension liability are subject to continual revision as actual results are compared with past expectations and new estimates are made about the future.

A summary of the actuarial assumptions and methods used to calculate the total pension liability as of June 30, 2021, is provided below:

Actuarial Assumptions

Municipal Bond Index	2.21%, as per Bond Buyer General Obligation 20 — Bond Municipal Bond Index
Discount Rate	2.21%
Valuation Date	June 30, 2019
Measurement Date	June 30, 2020
Actuarial Cost Method	Entry age normal

This valuation also reflects a salary freeze until July 1, 2017, due to Act No. 66 of 2014. While the Act No. 66 salary freeze only applies to Central Government employees, public corporations are mandated to achieve savings under Act No. 66, and actuaries have assumed that they will meet this mandate by freezing salaries. Also, while municipalities are not impacted by Act No. 66, the actuaries have also assumed the salary freeze for these employees due to the current economic conditions in Puerto Rico.

Most other demographic assumptions used in the July 1, 2013, valuation were based on the results of an actuarial experience study using data as of June 30, 2003, June 30, 2005 and June 30, 2007.

e. Long-Term Expected Rate of Return

The investment return assumption is no longer applicable due to Pay-As-You-Go funding.

The discount rate on June 30, 2020, and 2021, was as follows:

g. Pay-As-You-Go Funding

On August 23, 2017, the Governor signed into law the “Act to Guarantee the Payment to Our Pensioners and Establish a New Plan for Defined Contributions for Public Servants” (Act No. 106-2017), which reformed the Commonwealth Retirement Systems. Act. No. 106- for the ERS’s participants as of June 30, 2017. The members of the prior programs and new system members hired on and after July 1, 2017, are now enrolled in a new defined contributions program. Act No. 106- 2017 also established by law the Pay-Go mechanism for the payment of accumulated pension benefits and eliminated employers’ contributions and other analogous contributions. Approximately $2 billion was allocated for the payment of Pay-Go benefits in each of the budgets for fiscal years 2019 through 2021.

Furthermore, Act No. 106-2017 modified the ERS’s governance. Under Act No. 106-2017, the ERS’ Board of Trustees was substituted with a new Retirement Board, which is currently responsible for governing all the Commonwealth’s Retirement Systems.

Act No. 106-2017 also ordered a suspension of the ERS’s loan programs and ordered a merger of the administrative structures of the retirement systems. At the Retirement Board’s discretion, the servicing of the ERS’s existing loan portfolio may be externalized. Pursuant to Act No. 106-2017, the employees of the ERS that are not retained under the new administrative structure will be transferred to other public agencies in conformity with Act No. 8-2017.

15. OTHER POSTEMPLOYMENT BENEFITS (OPEB)

The Corporation implemented GASB Statement No. 75 Accounting and Financial Reporting for Postemployment Benefits other than Pensions, which governs the specifics of accounting for public OPEB plan obligations for participating employers and is required to be implemented for employer fiscal years beginning after June 15, 2017. GASB 75 requires a liability for OPEB obligations, known as the Net OPEB Liability (Total OPEB Liability for unfunded plans), to be recognized on the balance sheets of participating employers. Changes in the Net OPEB Liability (Total OPEB Liability for unfunded plans) will be immediately recognized as OPEB Expense on the income statement or reported as deferred inflows/outflows of resources depending on the nature of the change.

OPEB are part of an exchange of salaries and benefits for employee service rendered. Most OPEB have been funded on a pay-as-you-go basis and have been reported in financial statements when the promised benefits are paid. GASB 75 requires state and local government's financial report to reflect systematic, accrual basis measurement and recognition of OPEB cost (expense) over a period that approximates employees' years of service and provides information about actuarial accrued liabilities associated with the OPEB, and whether and to what extent progress is being made in funding the funding the plan.

Prior to the year ended June 30, 2020, there were two groups of participants, one administered through the Employee Retirement System (ERS), consisting primarily of a medical insurance plan contribution benefit, and the other, resulting from collective bargaining agreements that included other benefits to all employees who met certain age and years of service requirements. Effective January 1, 2020, the benefits to future retirees was eliminated and the liability adjusted to reflect this as of June 30, 2020. The effect of this adjustment resulted in a one-time reduction of expense of $29.1 million for the year ended June 30, 2021.

The benefits are funded from the Corporation's assets on a pay-as-you-go basis.

Descriptions of the plan follow:

A. Commonwealth Medical Insurance Plan Contribution Benefit

The other postemployment benefit plan of the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico for the retired participants of the Employees' Retirement System (the Plan) is an unfunded, multi-employer defined benefit other postemployment healthcare benefit plan. The Plan is administered on a pay-as-you-go basis. The Plan covers a payment of up to $100 per month to the eligible medical insurance plan selected by each member provided that the member retired prior to July 1, 2013 (Act No. 483 as amended by Act No. 3).

The Plan is financed by the Commonwealth through legislative appropriations. However, the Commonwealth claims reimbursement from each employer monthly for the corresponding amount of the OPEB payments made by the Commonwealth in relation to the retirees associated with each employer. There is no contribution requirement from the plan members during active employment. The retirees contribute the amount of the healthcare insurance premium not covered by the Commonwealth contribution. The Plan members were eligible for benefits upon reaching the applicable pension benefits retirement age. The Act No. 3 of 2013 eliminated this healthcare benefit to the Plan members that retired after June 30, 2013.

18. CONTINGENCIES

The Corporation is included as defendant in various lawsuits as of June 30, 2021, most of current and former employees because of the Corporation's decision to declare null and void certain administrative personnel transactions which occurred in prior years. Plaintiffs' claims include damages and requests for reinstatements. On November 17, 2011, as part of one of the cases being litigated, the State Court of Appeals ratified a previous ruling in favor of plaintiffs on the subject related to nullification of personnel transactions. Management believes, based on the opinion of legal counsel, that their actions were appropriate, and these adverse rulings were appealed to the State Supreme Court. Also, the Corporation is included as defendant or co-defendant in several other claims and lawsuits pending final resolution. The Corporation had medical malpractice insurance coverage through June 3, 1991, and for the period from December 31, 1996, to April 1, 2007. During the periods from June 4, 1991, to December 30, 1996, and from April 2, 2007, to present, the Corporation had no medical malpractice coverage. Management maintains a provision of approximately $18,024,525 to cover claims and lawsuits that may be assessed against the Corporation, including malpractice cases not covered by the related policy as of June 30, 2021. The Corporation has certain labor-related, medical malpractice, general liability, and other claims for which the probability of loss is not probable, but reasonably possible, therefore no accrual was necessary to be made in the financial statements on June 30, 2021. In the opinion of management, any loss to be sustained because of an unfavorable outcome for the aforementioned cases has been provided for in the reserve estimates accrued and should not materially affect the Corporation's financial statements.

19. COMPLIANCE REQUIREMENT

The Act 45 of 1935, as amended, workers compensation for accident benefit system, requires that all incurred expenses, as budgeted, to be registered by the Corporation, after subtracting medical and hospitalization expenses, cannot exceed twenty two percent (22%) of the preceding year's total premiums income. As a result of requirements of GASB No. 73, Accounting and Financial Reporting for Pensions and Related Assets that are not within the Scope of GASB Statement 68, and Amendments to Certain Provisions of GASB Statements 67 and 68, effective for fiscal years beginning after June 15, 2015, and the related actuarially determined pension expense, administrative expense resulted in 18%, excluding pension expense, which experienced an unusual increase due to a change in estimate in pension liability.

20. SUBSEQUENT EVENTS

Management has evaluated subsequent events through December 28, 2022, which is the same date the financial statements were available to be issued.

Effects of the Coronavirus Disease

During the month of December 2019, a respiratory disease started to spread, caused by a novel virus called “Coronavirus” or COVID-19. The World Health Organization (WHO) declared a global health emergency in January 2020 and in March 2020, it declared the spread of COVID-19 as a global pandemic.

The effects of the disease have been swift. The pandemic has transformed economic outlooks, health, and social norms around the globe. Government and health care providers worked around the clock to slow the spread of the disease. Measures taken to contain the spread of the virus, including quarantines, social distancing, and closures of non-essential services have triggered significant disruptions to businesses locally and worldwide, resulting in an economic slowdown.

The Governor of the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico issued several Executive and Administrative Orders to manage the spread of the pandemic with the last one issued February 22, 2022. In early 2021, a vaccine was approved for emergency use by the Center for Disease Control (CDC), followed by a program of mass vaccinations. The vaccines have proven to minimize the effects of the virus and operations are returning to more predictable norm.

Although the Corporation’s administrative offices were affected by the initial full lock-down, operations continued remotely, with personnel returning to the offices as the pandemic has been diminishing its grip on the population. The medical services operation experienced a reduction of load as many non-emergency procedures were suspended or limited by the Governor’s Executive Orders. Notwithstanding, the Corporation covers the pandemic related illnesses of all covered employees (its own and others) infected while at work.

The Corporation cannot predict the exact impact on our activities in the remainder 2022 and thereafter. Depending on the duration of the COVID-19 crisis and the continued negative impact on the individuals, local and global economic activity, we might experience additional negative results, although, as of the basic financial statements issuance date; however, this is not expected.

On October 29, 2021, the Court entered an Order granting the Receiver's Motion to Approve First Interim Distribution and authorizing the Receiver to proceed with an initial distribution of 40% of each Investor Claimant with an Approved Claim. As set forth in the Motion, the distribution checks will be made payable to each Investor Claimant based on the source of investment and will be mailed to the addresses provided by the Investor Claimant on their respective Proof of Claim form.

Voluntary Transition Program

The Oversight Board, pursuant to its authority under PROMESA, reviews all fiscal matters of the Commonwealth, including public corporations. To comply with the Oversight Board requirements, the Corporation proposed the in fiscal year 2019-2020 the implementation of a Voluntary Transition Program (VTP) open to qualifying employees. After securing Board approval, the Corporation implemented such program effective November 1, 2021, when 280 employees transitioned out of the Corporation.

Transfer of PREPA employees as part of agreement with LUMA for operating PREPA's energy distribution system

The Puerto Rico Energy and Power Authority (PREPA) established by the Puerto Rico Public-Private Partnership Authority (the "P3 Authority") pursuant to Section 5 of the Puerto Rico Electric System Transformation Act, Act No. 120-2019, as amended ("Act 120"), determined to recommend to the board of directors of the P3 Authority (the "P3 Authority Board") that the contract for the management, operation, maintenance, repair, restoration, and replacement of the Puerto Rico electric power transmission and distribution system (the "Project") be awarded to LUMA Energy. As part of the agreement, LUMA would hire all qualified employees of PREPA that applied voluntarily to transfer to LUMA. Those that didn't chose to transfer to LUMA, would remain government employees and be transferred to other government agencies and corporations.

On July 1, 2021, one hundred (100) of those employees were transferred to the Corporation.

Improvement in digital support of operation.

In its commitment to improve the efficiency of operation and remain accessible to employers and injured during disasters, the Corporation implemented during fiscal year 2021 a digital platform to store the Corporation's data and make it available to employees and providers regardless of the physical location of the servers.

20. Subsequent Events (continuation)

Status of PROMESA Title III and potential impact to the Corporation

Prior to March 15, 2022, the Commonwealth and many of its component units suffered a fiscal, economic and liquidity crisis, the culmination of many years of significant governmental deficits, an economic recession that persisted since 2006, prior liquidity challenges, a high unemployment rate, population decline, and high levels of debt and pension obligations. As the Commonwealth's tax base shrunk and its revenues were affected by prevailing economic conditions, an increasing portion of the Commonwealth's general fund budget consisted of health care and pension-related costs and debt service requirements through fiscal year 2019, resulting in reduced funding for other essential services. The Commonwealth's historical liquidity constraints, among other factors, adversely affected its credit ratings and its ability to obtain financing at reasonable interests rates.

On June 30, 2016, the United States Congress enacted the Puerto Rico Oversight, Management, and Economic Stability Act (PROMESA) to address these problems, which included the establishment of the Financial Oversight and Management Board for Puerto Rico (the Oversight Board), an in-court restructuring process under Title III of PROMESA, and an out-of-court restructuring process under Title VI of PROMESA. Thereafter, the Commonwealth and other governmental entities including, the Puerto Rico Sales Tax Financing Corporation (COFINA), the Employees Retirement System of the Government of the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico (ERS), the Puerto Rico Highways and Transportation Authority (HTA), the Puerto Rico Electric Power Authority (PREPA), and the Public Building Authority (PBA) initiated proceedings under Title III, and the Government Development Bank for Puerto Rico (GDB), the Puerto Rico Infrastructure Financing Authority (PRIFA), and the Puerto Rico Convention Center District Authority (PRCCDA) initiated proceedings under Title VI, each at the request of the Governor to restructure or adjust their existing debt.

On October 26, 2021, the Governor signed into law Act No. 53 of 2021 (Act 53), known as the "Law to End the Bankruptcy of Puerto Rico," which provided legislative approval for the bond transactions contemplated in the Seventh Amended Plan conditioned on the elimination of its monthly pension cut provisions in an amended version of that plan.

On January 18, 2022, the Title III Court entered its findings of fact and conclusions of law in connection with the Eighth Amended Plan [ECF No. 19812] (the Findings of Fact) and an order confirming the Eighth Amended Plan [ECF No. 19813] (the Commonwealth Confirmation Order). In both the Commonwealth Confirmation Order and Findings of Fact, the Title III Court found that Act 53 properly authorized the issuance of new bonds and provided adequate means for implementation of the Commonwealth Plan of Adjustment.

20. Subsequent Events (continuation)

Between January 28, 2022 and February 17, 2022, six appeals of the Confirmation Order were filed in the First Circuit. By March 11, 2022, the First Circuit denied all parties' motions for a stay pending appeal, which allowed the Commonwealth Plan of Adjustment to become effective despite the appeals. Oral argument on the merits of the appeals is currently scheduled for April 28, 2022.

On March 15, 2022 (the Effective Date), the conditions precedent to the Effective Date of the Commonwealth Plan of Adjustment were satisfied and/or waived by the Oversight Board, and the plan became effective. Accordingly, the Commonwealth Plan of Adjustment has been confirmed and is currently effective as of the date hereof.

Notwithstanding the financial constraints imposed by the Oversight Board to the Commonwealth and its component units, the Corporation foresees continuing to experience positive results from operations and related cash flows.

For further information, refer to the final versions of the Commonwealth Plan of Adjustment, Findings of Fact, and Confirmation Order, which are available at <https://cases.primeclerk.com/puertorico/Home-DocketInfo>.
